Thanks for the quick review! I added responses to your comments below -- we can also chat on Monday if we have time. And if Monday is too busy with briefing issues, we can schedule a separate CD call to go through these issues.

Devon, thanks very much for the “cliff notes” version of the PCD – it really helped with streamlining my review time. I wanted to get a response to you now, while my memory was relatively fresh from Monday’s 5/17/21 call, and just in case we have time to discuss next Monday, May 24, 2021 during our 2 pm call.

Subject: CRW: Updated CD Mod

Hi all,

I have attached three documents for your review:

1. An updated redline of the CD Mod
2. A clean copy of the updated CD Mod
3. A "cliffs notes" version of the redline that we all reviewed together

The updated CD redline reflects our team discussions over the past few weeks. It also has updated automatic paragraph cross-references, which should make our lives easier moving forward. As a reminder, the redline shows changes between the clean copy of the modification and the original filed Partial Consent Decree. I deleted DOJ/team comments that we have resolved. You'll still see a handful of comments from me, either because we are still working to resolve the comment, or because a new question popped up while I was updating this version. Any new comment or update should be in bolded text.

Thanks,
Devon
